We understand that an arrangement has been made whereby the Republican Knights of Labor will quietly vote for Mr. Kinsey for Congress, and the Democratic members of the order be deluded into giving their suffrages to Mr. Ratchford, under the belief that their Republican brethren are doing the same thing. It is a "good scheme," but will it work?

Hon. H. N. Phillips, of Dunklin county, addressed the citizens at the courthouse last Friday afternoon, as per appointment. He gave us an excellent talk, which was fully appreciated by his audience. His appointment at Annapolis was not filled, on account of sickness in his family. From here Mr. Phillips went over to Madison County, where he will remain until Thursday, when he will address the good people of Belleview in the afternoon, and also speak at Graniteville in

The Republican parade last Saturday night was well attended and made a very creditable appearance. The line was escorted by four bands, and was graced with fair ladies, a glee club, a log-cabin, and a "Protection" pavilion to which was anchored "Mary" little lamb." Ninety-four ladies and gentlemen were horseback. At Pilot Knob in the afternoon, they had a flag-raising and speeches by Messrs. Kinsey, Thomas, and others. In the evening, at the courthouse, the same speakers again regaled the crowd with Reall told, in line, exclusive of the bands and I shall take the pleasure in collecting the ladies.
